

Christmas Greetings 2009

Happy Solstice to you all! Winter has truly arrived, and Badger Farm is trapped in a Winter Wonderland. It's hard to believe that in a mere 6 months, we'll be celebrating another Solstice, at EcoFest 2010, which is already in the planning stages, with some fantastic acts lined-up to perform. Keep checking the website for updates. We hope to see many familiar faces again, as well as some new ones.

We've decided to have a little Spring Fair here at Badger Farm, during the Easter weekend (starting on Good Friday, April 2nd), with some stalls, some workshops, some food, and some music. Nothing too fancy, just a bit of a get-together for the people we don't get to see often enough. It will take place down by the barn, with parking (and camping, weather permitting) on the field where the festival normally takes place. It will also be an opportunity to promote the summer festivals, so come along and collect some leaflets to distribute in your areas.

Hope you all have a lovely warm Christmas, and a happy & healthy New Year. See you in 2010!

All the best,
Susi
